The following process narrative is intended to provide Applicants with an understanding of the respective application process, procedures, and Facility Rental Application requirements for rentals of Town of Yemassee facilities. While intended to explain the process, it is not intended to repeal, eliminate, or otherwise limit any requirements, regulations or provisions of the Town of Yemassee Town Code, rules and/or regulations. Compliance with these procedures will minimize delays and assure expeditious application review.

Step 1. Reservation Request	Required
Applicant submits a reservation request by confirming with Reception the facility is available on the desired day, completing the facility rental application, remitting the necessary security deposit and facility rental payment to the reception desk. Upon receipt, staff will update the municipal calendar and the reservation will be complete.
Step 2. Site Visit	Required
Applicant will be shown the facility to be rented by Town Staff and review policies.
Step 3. Key Pickup	Required
The day previous to the rental, the applicant will pickup the key-card for access to the facility. Staff will conduct a walk through of the building with the applicant to ensure the facility is ready for rental and that no issues are noted. The applicant will sign out the key-card for the duration of their rental.
Step 4. Rental Day
The applicant will have use of the facility for the entire day of the rental. The applicant will have contact numbers in the event an urgent issue arises at the facility during the rental.
Step 5. Return Key, Complete Post Event Walkthrough	Required
The next business day after the rental, the applicant will return the key-card to the Yemassee Municipal Complex. Staff and the applicant will conduct a post event walk through to ensure the building had no damage and was cleaned in an appropriate fashion after the event. Upon a satisfactory walk-through, Staff will complete a security deposit reimbursement form and forward to the Finance Department for processing.
Step 6. Finance Department Issues Security Deposit Refund	Required
As soon as Finance Department receives a refund request from the Reception desk, a reimbursement check will be issued to the name on the facility rental application and mailed to the address on file.
Step 7. Renter Receives refund check	Required
The applicant should receive a reimbursement check within two business days after the key-card is returned and the Finance Department receives a refund request form.
NOTICE
If the applicant has not received the reimbursement check within five days, please contact the Finance Department at (843) 589-2565 Ext. 3
