Mayor Moore read proposed Ordinance 22-01, Consideration of an Ordinance Approving Annexation of One Parcel of land, totaling 3.25 Acres, located at 183 Trask Parkway, Beaufort County TMS: R700 012 000 0029 0000. The applicant is Brian Cobban, and the parcel is currently utilized as a private hobby farm for the applicant/owner. Currently, there is a small utility shed that was permitted by Beaufort County last year, a chicken coop holding roughly twenty chickens and a large pen for goats. Mr. Cobban has no plans for any development and merely purchased the property for his hobby last summer. Under the Beaufort County Community Development Code, the parcel is zoned T2R. The Beaufort County Community Development Code defines the Rural T2R Zone as a “zone intended to preserve the rural character of Beaufort County including areas that are sparsely settled lands in an open cultivated state. It may include large lot residential, farms where animals are raised or crops are grown, parks, woodland, grasslands, trails, and open space areas. The T2 Rural Zone implements the Comprehensive Plan goals of preserving the rural character of portions of Beaufort County.” The proposed zoning under the Town of Yemassee Zoning Ordinance is General Residential (GR) which coincides with the zoning of adjacent parcels in the annexed areas of Sheldon in the Town of Yemassee. Mayor Moore asked for a motion to approve first reading. Council Member Murray made the motion to approve second and final reading of Ordinance 22-01. Mayor Pro-Tem O'Banner asked if this property was the vacant land directly next to Deveaux Hill Rd. Mr. Garnes informed her that it was that property which is bordered by Trask Parkway and Deveaux Hill Rd to the north. There was no other discussion. Second by Council Member Pinckney. All in favor, Motion Passed.

Mayor Moore read proposed Ordinance 22-02, Consideration of an Ordinance Approving Annexation of One Parcel of land, totaling 0.74 Acres, located at 191 Bing Street, Hampton County TMS: 198-00-00-015. The applicant is Lazarus Reid, and the parcel is currently an abandoned single-family dwelling. Under the Hampton County Unified Land Development Ordinance, the parcel is zoned General Development. The Hampton County Unified Land Development Ordinance defines the General Development zoning district as a “This district is expected to accommodate most of the projected urban or higher intensity development in the unincorporated areas of Hampton County, in accord with the county’s Land Use and Development Plan. Corresponding generally with the urban and urbanizing areas delineated on the Plan Map for general development, this district consists of areas where development logically should locate as a consequence of planned public facilities and associated capital expenditures, i.e., schools, sewers, water, parks, etc. As such this district is designed to accommodate a variety of uses, providing for a full range of residential as well as commercial, institutional, and industrial uses. In so doing, emphasis is placed on performance and development standards to ameliorate the impact of such uses and eliminate the negative aspects of juxtaposing varied and dissimilar uses.” The proposed zoning under the Town of Yemassee Zoning Ordinance is Residential ¼ Acre which coincides with the zoning of adjacent parcels within the Bing Street neighborhood in the Town of Yemassee.
